

THE CAROLINA THEATRE

DOWNTOWN DURHAM

In the heart of downtown Durham for 90 years and counting, the majestic Carolina Theatre presents world class concerts, comedy and film to fans in the Triangle Region and beyond. The last remaining of Durham's original downtown theaters, the city-owned, historic performing arts venue has become a community treasure and one of the Bull City's most beloved institutions.

A beacon for fans of the arts, the Carolina Theatre has been supported by its community for nearly a century. The venue is at the center of the renaissance of downtown Durham, which boasts a blossoming tech startup incubator, a flourishing healthcare industry and a recognized food scene.

Show after show, artists and fans alike simply fall in love with this intimate and ornate showplace for the performing arts.
